

BEWL WATER FISHERY WEEKLY REPORT week ending:

02-Aug-18

Despite a cooler, wet weekend, the fishing has remained very challenging and the water temperature remains temperature is due to rise again the next few days. Although anglers have reported catching lots of perch.

The "bubble" was off for 2 days but is now back on.

From limited information received, the fish are rising on the bubble but deep everywhere else.

Rod average for the week, based on returns, is just 0.88.

Best flies to try are Hoppers fished on a floating line (on the Bubble).

Best area is the Main Bowl.

Bank fishing is still very difficult.

Winner of the prize draw for July is Melvyn Blythe who wins a day motor boat for 2.

Water temperature 21degC - Water level 85%
