BEWL WATER FISHERY WEEKLY REPORT week ending: 20-Sep-18

The fishing is still challenging at Bewl Water however there has been a slight improvement and, although many still finding it difficult, a small number of anglers have managed to catch their 8 fish limits., but many are still finding it difficult. Rod average , based on returns, is 1.25.
A further 1500 rainbows have been stocked and average weight of fish caught is a healthy is 2lbs 3ozs.
Best areas for boat fishing have been Chingley, the Main Bowl and Bewl Straight.
Best area to try for bank fishing is from the Dam Wall. Successful flies have been Buzzer and Cormorant.
Any method anglers have been catching well on very small spoons.

The annual Bewl Bridge Fyfishers invitation match, The Grand Max Fly sponsored by Fordham and Wakefield, took place on Wednesday 19 September. Conditions were hard as gales hit the water all day but 65 determined anglers managed to catch 59 fish for a rod average of 0.91.
Winners were Team Grand Max with 12 trout for a total bag weight of 28lb 14oz and team member Phil Thompson had the biggest individual bag weight of 4 fish for 10lb 3oz, an outstanding catch on a hard day.

Water temperature 17.5degC - Water level 71%
